

Westminster's Top Secret venue...

Entertain with a difference at The Churchill War Rooms; experience the actual site underneath Westminster, where Winston Churchill and his War Cabinet led Britain and her allies to victory during the World War II.

Winston Churchill is recognised as one of the greatest individuals to ever walk the course of British History. Today he is a figure admired throughout the world by all, from heads of state to the man in the street. Nowhere is the scene of his and Britain's finest hour better illustrated and more intimately experienced than at the Churchill War Rooms.

Today the rooms have been preserved and restored and look just as they did when he last held court here. Walk down the very corridors that Churchill walked, peer into the War Cabinet Room at the scene, left as it was when he last met there, and marvel at the complex Map Rooms, abandoned in 1945 and left frozen in time.

Against a backdrop of historical material, this once secret underground war time headquarters is an ideal venue for meetings, dinners, receptions, press launches and seminars for up to 400 guests.
