

Air show media accreditation Terms and conditions

1. Accreditation is issued in the name of the applicant only and is non-transferable.
2. Accreditation will be granted to no more than two persons from any single organisation.
3. Submission of an application does not guarantee accreditation, as demand for accreditation always exceeds the number of places available. If you have not been contacted regarding your application, please do not assume that you have been successful. Please contact Rachel Powell or Esther Blaine by email at airshowmedia@iwm.org.uk.
4. Media accreditation will not be allocated to friends or partners – they will need to purchase separate tickets.
5. You must register at the Media Centre for briefing and to collect your media badge. Only then will you be fully accredited.
6. Personal belongings and equipment are left in the Media Centre at your own risk.
7. You are requested to return or destroy your media passes if you are unable to attend.
8. Any film, photographs or information gathered at IWM Duxford may only be used for newsgathering purposes and not for commercial sale.
